To whom it may concern,

It is my genuine honor to submit a letter of recommendation for Shea Lisak I have had the pleasure of knowing Shea through part of her aviation career, and she has impressed me with her skills and professionalism every step of the way. Shea is one of the most accomplished, skilled, and competent pilots I have known.

During my time at Arizona State University, I had the opportunity to serve as the Lead Aviation Tutor and over the course of more than a year, out of the 40+ students I worked with, Shea stood out immediately. She demonstrated a remarkable level of maturity, professionalism, and knowledge that set her apart from her peers and colleagues. Shea's tenacity and passion can be easily seen in her education and work. She is involved in giving ground instruction to students who need additional peer support as a Lead Aviation Tutor at Arizona State University and as a Teaching Assistant for various college level courses in the Aviation program. She is graduating as the department's Outstanding Graduate, Fulton Schools of Engineering IMPACT award recipient, and the recipient of several Deans awards.

Shea's character can be easily seen in her work with Civil Air Patrol and Women in Aviation.
Her willingness to volunteer her time and skills outside the work environment to those in need reflects not only her deep sense of compassion but also her kindness and dedication to giving back to the community.

Without a doubt, Shea possesses the complete set of instructional skills required to instruct your next generation of pilots. She is the type of instructor I would want paired with me, hands down.
I send my letter with the highest regards. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Kidsom
First Officer, Part 121 Air Carrier
